Dr. Kausky has a diploma in Sports Medicine from the Canadian Association of Sport and Exercise Medicine, and is the lead physician for the Canadian Ski Cross team. She is a true mentor and a kind, dedicated person who is highly deserving of this recognition!

What advice do you wish you'd had at the start of your career?

“The value of community. Both in mentorship for personal growth, but also in improving community primary care. The value of collaborative, team-based care to improve patient outcomes, increase capacity, and increase personal growth and the joy in work.”
